

The Towne Dandies

My First Stampede

Lyrics

My First Stampede

Hey there's a rumble 'cross the canyon floor, a kind of roar I never heard before, a lot of yelling and a big dust cloud, and all these cows just zippin' around. I heard some cowboy ask we ought to do, don't look at me, hey I was gonna ask you. I've got not idea how we ought to proceed, got no idea cause it's my first stampede. It's my first stampede yeah it's my first stampede. I got some cactus in my boots and it's hurting my feet, it's my first stampede yeah it's my first stampede. It's like a Marty Robbins record just ask Steve.

I guess you take a plug and you bit off a chew, then pitch your coffee into the fire, you hop on in your little cowboy suit then tuck you pantlegs into your boots. I hear you take your hat and you wave it around jump on your pony and start zipping around you throw your lasso up in the air and hoot and holler through the whole affair. It's my first stampede yeah it's my first stampede. It's like a Marty Robbins record, isn't it Steve?
It's my first stampede yeah it's my first stampede, I caught a branch in the gut and it's hard to breathe.

Tumbleweed tumbles across the canyon floor, 10,000 hooves makes a mighty roar, a lot of yelling and a big dust cloud then all these cows just zippin around. I hear you take your hat and you wave it around, jump on your pony and start zippin around, you wave your lasso up in the air and hoot and holler through the whole affair. It's my first stampede, is this your first stampede? I'm awful pleased to meet you, it's my first stampede. It's my first stampede, is this your first stampede? The pleasure is mine, it's my first stampede.